CORIAN® QUARTZ

THE CORIAN® QUARTZ PALETTE WILL FEATURE SIX NEW HIGH GLOSS AESTHETICS AND FOUR WITH A SOFT LEATHERED TEXTURE. THE NEW COLLECTION OFFERS A SUBTLE TABLEAU OF HUES AND DESIGNS THAT ARE ANYTHING BUT MUTED. FROM PURE WHITE TO DEEP GRAY, THE COLORS RESIDE WITHIN RICH AESTHETICS AND THE INTRODUCTIONS OFFER STRIKING INTERPRETATIONS OF NATURE.

Beginning with Bianco Pur and Bianco Marmor, crisp white is used as the basis for either a pure color statement, or as the foundation for a flowing marble aesthetic. Oyster Grigio and Geo Grigio display soft, neutral backgrounds with veining and particles coursing through the surface inspired by their geologic origins. Ashen Gray and Slate Geo, respectively, offer light and dark gray colorations that are comprised of restrained veins and quiet movement.

The new designs of Corian® Quartz are created to not only enhance a space, but to create environments in which the aesthetics offer superb color and design possibilities beyond their subtle appearance.

BIANCO PUR

A color as simple and pure as its name, the sharp white of Bianco Pur is unadulterated style. It calls to mind the brightness of a cloud, the frothiness of the sea's white caps, or the sparkle of a distant star. Its applications, much like its pure hue, are boundless. It is fresh, direct, and exceptional look for design spaces.

BIANCO MARMOR

Beginning with a white ground, Bianco Marmor is enhanced with dappled gray veining throughout its surface. Classic in inspiration, timeless in execution, the color and pattern are a traditional look that has taken on a modern sensibility.

OYSTER GRIGIO

The subtle color of an oyster shell infuses Oyster Grigio with a natural look. Soft gray is enhanced with deeper gray veining throughout its surface, sparked with occasional light particles. Its geologic origins inspire its aesthetic design; its understated appearance defines its ultimate beauty.

ASHEN GRAY

Ashen Gray's variations of veins and elements, create an aesthetic that feels light and familiar, yet is still undeniably new. The cool gray of atmospheric vapor affords inspiration as the design's swirling pattern creates a moment of calm and ease.

GEO GRIGIO

Monochromatic elements reside within the serene coloring of Geo Grigio while narrow veins add definition and detail. By design, Geo Grigio invites closer inspection to reveal the delicate elements that give it life and energy from its geologic inspirations.

SLATE GEO

Fine, light colored graining is incorporated with more dramatic veins to give Slate Geo its statement making presence. Though its dark gray color maintains a quiet dignity, it nonetheless commands attention as an aesthetic capable of being center stage.

CORIAN® QUARTZ LEATHERED AESTHETICS

THE INHERENT STYLE OF CORIAN® QUARTZ, DOUBLED.

Enter a realm of greater opportunities, where your sense of style can be expanded to fulfill your design ambitions. Corian® Design announces four new leathered texture aesthetics with which to design and drive your creative ideas.

The four new aesthetics of Venetia Cream Leathered, Coarse Pepper Leathered, Storm Grey Leathered, and Dove Grey Leathered, may seem familiar, and indeed they are. Selected from existing on-trend and superlative Corian® Quartz designs, the new additions add new sheen level and texture to the range. It is the best of worlds as you can now select the ideal looks for your projects.

The color and inherent patterns remain, but the new, unique looks introduce a completely different type of style, as well as increasing your design options. The low-sheen finish emits a quieter beauty that intrigues the eye, and the subtly pebbled texture engages touch, proposing a moment to pause and consider the surroundings. Together, they take the individual patterns to new levels of design aesthetics.

Corian® Quartz Leathered aesthetics enhance designed environments as different as home, retail, hospitality or office space. The new aesthetics can be used individually to gently advance the design of a space, or be combined with their higher sheen counterparts to create stunning contrasts of sheen and texture.

Modern colors, beautiful designs, and proven style merge in a new aesthetic to become the essence of Corian® Quartz Leathered.
